Fourth Naval District Unit No. 195 Honors Son of Benefactress—To Get Home

POST NO. 61 BUYS PROPERTY

Post 195, of the American Legion for the Fourth Naval District, has unanimously agreed to change its name to the "Joseph Faussett Bellak Post 195," in memory of Ensign Bellak, son of Mrs. Blanche Bellak, 310 S. 4th St., Twelfth street, who died in the service.

Commander Creamer of the post, recently announced that Mrs. Bellak had discussed with officers a plan to help provide a permanent home and club for the members.

Post No. 61, in the Twenty-fourth ward, makes announcement today of the purchase of a permanent home. The post has taken over the Third Christian Church, Holly and Aspen streets. Meetings will be held in this building immediately and the post will obtain full possession within a few months. The church congregation is removing to Overbrook.

The property is well preserved. It has an auditorium which now seats 700 and which, when improved, will seat 1000. Negotiations for the purchase of the building were made by a building committee composed of L. H. Crabtree, Dr. George C. Parry and the Rev. Dr. Gearhart.

Joseph W. Breen, of Post 237, a representative in the county committee of the Legion, declared yesterday that his organization in Philadelphia county must give immediate attention to the question of collecting the dues.

"I have been associated with a large number of organizations," said Mr. Breen, "and I appreciate the difficulty that confronts men in obtaining money for dues. We are face to face with the problem of keeping the members some time soon for the purpose of obtaining additional members and inspiring the present members of the Legion."

David J. Martin, Post No. 98, has elected the following officers: Commander, James J. Lamond; vice commander, John Adams; adjutant, Howe and O. Rappold; finance officer, J. Marshall Penny; executive committee, John Mawhinney, Herbert T. Hare, Fred J. Rappold, Joseph P. Moser and George A. E.

Shubin Buchsbaum, Post No. 45, at the Southwark Library, Fifth and Ellis streets, was presented with two silk American flags and $250 in cash by citizens of the First ward. Dr. H. E. Keller made the presentation and promised the assistance of all the citizens of the First ward in the post's endeavor to obtain a building of its own.

Samuel M. Schwartz, post commander, accepted the gifts on behalf of the post. Plans have been completed for the post dance, which takes place Wednesday, February 11, at the Second Regiment Armory. The post will use the money derived from the dance as a nucleus for a building fund.

Representatives of the railway company present were Francis B. Reeves, Jr., Gillet Collins, Philip Dudley and John J. Curley. With Mayor Moore was Commissioner of Docks Sproule.

The conference was in connection with the Mayor's plan to make Philadelphia a more important port, his idea being that railway facilities along the water front and elsewhere in the city should be extended and improved to keep pace with the growth of the harbor as a shipping center.

EMPLOYES OF STORES DINE

Workers in Two Wanamaker Firms Have Jolly Time

A regular party was given by the "Good Fellowship Club" of the Wanamaker & Brown and William H. Wanamaker stores last night in the Adelphi Hotel. It was the second annual banquet and was held in the gold room.

There are 125 members in the club and the worst night of the winter would not keep a hundred and one of them away.

The evening began with a big dinner, interrupted between courses by community singing. Paper caps, whiz-bangs, horns and streamers lent color and cheer to the affair, and later in the evening blue smoke made wall decorations and fixtures indistinguishable.

Ten acts from a vaudeville theatre helped to enliven the guests, and before the close of the banquet several thousands dollars' worth of prizes were presented to the deserving salesmen present for their meritorious work during the year.

GIMBEL SINGERS ENTERTAIN

Choral Society Gives Concert at Bellevue-Stratford

The Gimbel Choral Society, composed of store employees, held its annual concert in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford last night.

Despite the bad weather more than 800 persons attended.

The chorus was directed by Stanley Muschamp and was a credit to him and the organization. There were eighty mixed voices in the chorus and its offerings were enthusiastically received.

Edward A. Davies, the possessor of a baritone voice of unusual quality, sang several solos and won much applause. Another singer who won particular favor, was Miss Edith L. English, soprano.

Professional talent was contributed by William Schmidt, cellist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, and Mrs. May Eberly Hotz.

The musical program was followed by the inspection of Girl Scouts, Troop No. 110, and cadet corps, Commander J. D. Robinson, Philadelphia Navy Yard, and E. Urner Goodman, scout executive, inspected the troops.

Before the inspection Major C. S. Halsall, employment manager of Gimbel Bros. and commander of the cadet corps, was given a breakfast set by the troop. He and Mrs. Halsall led the grand march, after which there was dancing. Mrs. Halsall carried a bouquet of pink carnations given her by the society.

Man! Relieve Your Wife of the Work and Worry of Wash Day

The most laborious, unhealthy, unsatisfactory work your wife does is home washing. Nothing does more to destroy her beauty, her youthfulness, her patience.

Today it is downright foolishness for any woman to bother doing her own washing. She can have it done outside her home just as satisfactorily and at no higher cost through the Family Laundry Service of your wife's present laundry. Then all your wife does is pack up her entire family's washing and give it to the laundryman. In a few days it will come back in this way—

All flat pieces, including bed linen, table linen and towels, washed, smoothly ironed, evenly folded and ready for use.

Wearing apparel, all underclothing, dresses, children's garments, etc., carefully washed and dried (and starched where necessary) ready to be dampened and ironed.

Many undergarments may be worn without ironing, due to the method of drying. This will save a great deal of your work in finishing that portion of your wash.

Figured out in dollars, health, comfort and happiness, it is absolutely false economy for your wife to do her own washing. Have her try Family Laundry Service.

Your collars and shirts last longer when done by dependable laundries. Get your wife to try the collar and shirt service of the laundry that handles her family washing.
